Information Collection And Use

We collect several different types of information for various purposes to provide and improve our Service to you.

Types of Data Collected

Personal Data

While using our Service, we may ask you to provide us with certain personally identifiable information that can be used to contact or identify you ("Personal Data"). Personally identifiable information may include, but is not limited to:

- Email address
- First name and last name
- Phone number
- Address, State, Province, ZIP/Postal code, City
- Cookies and Usage Data

We collect information to better understand and recognize our customers. Information is collected from the Site and Services in two ways:

- Information you give us. We may collect information, which may include Personal Information, that you give directly to us. For example, if you create any type of an account ("Account") with us, or an Account is created for you, we collect some or all of the following: company name, individual name, title, address, telephone number(s), email address(es), payment preferences, bank accounts, credit/debit card details, and your choice of Services. We also record and retain information, which may include Personal Information, from the communications and interaction that you initiate with us, such as orders, inquiry forms, emails, posts, chats, support tickets, payments, and payment history.

• Information from use of the Site and Services. We may collect information, which may include Personal Information, when you and third parties use the Site or Services. Like many websites, the Site also utilizes standard technology to generate web server logs and to read and write “cookies.” These technologies collect information about your use of the Site and Services. This information may include:

- o Visit information, such as date and time of use, referring/exit web pages, number of visits, pages visited, hyperlinks used, duration of visit, search queries, shopping cart, and order details.

- o Device information, such as hardware model, settings, operating system version, internet protocol address, browser type and language, unique device identifiers, and mobile device information including mobile phone number, if applicable.

- o Use information, as applicable, such as telephony log information like your phone number, calling-party number, forwarding numbers, time and date of calls, duration of calls, SMS routing information, and type of calls.

- o Location information, like GPS information, if enabled.

- o Email receipt and read confirmation.

- o Unique application number.

• Information from your use of the Services. When you are using the Services you may input or upload Content onto our system which we collect and store. That Content may include:
